Art Unit: 2721

1. Claims 2-19 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of the record fail to teach or suggest singly and/or in combination a method for surveying distribution of proprietary empirical data sets such as audio, image, or video data on computer sites accessible via the Internet which provides for automatically downloading data, including empirical data sets, from a plurality of computer sites over the Internet for each of a plurality of empirical data sets obtained by the downloading operation, automatically screening same to identify the potential presence of identification data steganographically embedded therein for each of a plurality of empirical data sets screened by the screening operation, discerning identification data, if any, steganographically encoded therein and generating a report identifying steganographically encoded empirical data sets identified by the foregoing steps, and the site from which each was downloaded wherein there is calibration data steganographically encoded within at least one empirical data set, the calibration data having one or more known properties facilitating identification thereof during the discerning step, the method including identifying the calibration data within the empirical data set and using data obtained thereby to aid in discerning the identification data from the empirical data set, wherein the empirical data set has been corrupted since being encoded the corruption including a process selected from the group consisting of misregistration and scaling of the empirical set the method further including the data to compensate for the corruption wherein the identification data can nonetheless be recovered from the empirical data set notwithstanding the corruption as prescribed for in the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
